Shooting Investigation

A juvenile has been arrested in connection with a shooting late last month near the Comfort Inn on Queen City Ave.

On November 28, 2022, at approximately 5:15 PM, Manchester Police responded to the area of 298 Queen City Ave for a report of gunshots heard.

The reporting party heard multiple shots and saw two people run from the area. When officers arrived, they found shell casings in the Comfort Inn parking lot but did not locate any victims or property damage.

Through the investigation, police identified a 17-year-old male from Manchester and charged him with one count of Reckless Conduct and Falsifying Evidence.
